D. LISTEN & COMPLETE

Romeo sees Juliet on her balcony. They reveal their mutual love.

JULIET: My only love from my only hate! Too early seen unknown, and known too late. Why must I fall in love with my worst enemy, ay me!

ROMEO: Speak again, bright angel! For you are as glorious to this night over my head as is a messenger of heaven.

JULIET: Deny your father and refuse your name; or, if you will not, swear your love, and I'll no longer be a Capulet. Only your name is my enemy, because you are yourself, whether a Montague or not.

ROMEO: Call me 'My love' and I'll be newly baptized.

JULIET: Who are you?

ROMEO: I hate my name, because it is an enemy to you.

JULIET: Aren't you a Montague?

ROMEO: Neither, if either you dislike.

JULIET: If they see you, they will murder you.

ROMEO: I find more danger in your eyes, than in twenty swords.

JULIET: Do you love me? I hope so, because I cannot hide the love I feel for you.

ROMEO: I swear by this blessed moon.

JULIET: Oh, don't swear by the moon, that is always changing, it might mean that your love is always changing as well.

ROMEO: What shall I swear by?

JULIET: Do not swear at all; or, if you want, swear by yourself, which is all that I love, and I'll believe you.

ROMEO: I swear by myself. I love you.

JULIET: If your purpose is marriage, send me word tomorrow by a messenger that I'll send to you. Tell me where and what time you want the ceremony; and I'll follow you around the world.

ROMEO: My only love!

JULIET: At what time tomorrow shall I send the messenger?

ROMEO: At the hour of nine.

JULIET: Goodnight, my love.

ROMEO: Sleep well, love, goodnight.
